Foreword

Good evening and welcome to the Manchester Universities' Choir and Orchestra Winter Concert 2024. We're a society at both University of Manchester and Manchester Metropolitan University, open to students and non-students and providing a non-auditioned opportunity to perform high-quality music! We are so excited to return to Holy Name to perform for you. So please sit back, relax and enjoy the show...

Conductors

Joseph Tanner

Hi, I'm Joe, Choir Conductor for CAOS. I'm a Music and Maths graduate and have been conducting choirs since 2016. I have sung with groups such as the Welsh National Opera and do regular work as an oboist. This is my fourth year with CAOS and it has been a pleasure to work with the choir in rehearsals. Everyone has worked so hard, and I can't wait for you to hear them perform!

Francesca Peilober-Richardson

Hello, I'm Francesca. I'm the orchestra conductor for CAOS. We rehearse every Tuesday evening and delight in learning exciting and challenging music with each other! Our concert tonight is full of magical, marvellous, and majestic pieces. We have a wide range of film, classical and musicals this evening which the orchestra has fully enjoyed learning together this term. We hope you enjoy and will have you either relaxing or on the edge of your seat!

Carols

To end our concert, we encourage you to join in with the festive Christmas Carols, led by the Choir and Orchestra. Please refer to the Carols Lyric Sheet.

Thanks

We would like to give a big thanks to...

Valentino Zanella for photography.

Samuel Bosworth, Alysha Brown and Kitty Pinnock for filming our concert.

And finally, Holy Name Church for allowing us to use the space.
